

Easy Read – Rights

What are your rights?

This document tells you about your rights.

Australian laws respect the rights of people with disability. The laws say you:

- should be included in community life
- have the same rights as all other Australians.

What are your human rights?

You should be:

- safe in your home and anywhere else
- treated with respect
- part of your cultural community.

You should be able to:

- participate in your religion
- express your sexuality
- communicate in your family's language.

When working with Seimosei Australia Pty Ltd and other disability support providers you also have rights.

You have the right to:

- receive good quality services
- tell us what you want
- choose the type of support worker you want
- make your own choices.

You also have the right to:

- be safe
- get help when you need it
- try new things and take risks.

How does Seimosei Australia Pty Ltd respect your rights?

Seimosei Australia Pty Ltd will:

- keep you safe
- show you respect and respect your privacy
- treat you well
- help you make your own choices
- listen to you

- involve your family, advocate and other support carers (if you want us to).

We will also:

- ask you to tell us what supports you want and the type of worker you need
- keep your personal information private.

We can also help you find an advocate if you need one.

You can safely:

- make complaints and provide feedback to us
- tell us you want to use another provider.

We will follow your instructions, unless we feel that you may get hurt.

We will then talk to you and your advocate/family about any risks involved to help you make a safe decision.

We also make sure our support workers follow our Service Charter of Rights.
